GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

By signing and attaching the applicable Addendum to this Sheltered Harbor Participation Agreement General Terms and Conditions (collectively, this "Agreement"), you ("Participant"), agree to become a subscriber to, and to participate in, Sheltered Harbor LLC ("Sheltered Harbor"). Participation in Sheltered Harbor is contingent upon approval by Sheltered Harbor and payment of applicable fees. Participant agrees to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the Sheltered Harbor LLC Operating Rules (the "Rules"), which are incorporated into this Agreement by this reference. Sheltered Harbor will provide 15-days advance written or electronic notice of any changes to the Rules.

1. Background.

Sheltered Harbor is a financial services industry driven and funded not-for-profit enterprise created to promote customer account protection by establishing a set of data security standards and recognizing participant adherence to these standards. Sheltered Harbor maintains an independent Board of Directors responsible for its strategy and governance, and FS-ISAC is the sole Member of Sheltered Harbor.

FS-ISAC is a system of information exchange among entities in the financial services sector for the purposes of providing members with timely, accurate, and actionable warnings of physical, operational, and cyber threats or attacks on the financial services infrastructure or individual firms, and for collecting and providing information on potential vulnerabilities in the financial services infrastructure.

2. Participation.

(a) To become a Participant of Sheltered Harbor, an entity must meet the eligibility requirements as specified in the Rules, Section 2.1, Sheltered Harbor Participant Eligibility, and must be approved for membership by Sheltered Harbor in consultation with FS-ISAC.

(b) The Participant agrees to be contacted by Sheltered Harbor for the purpose of verifying (1) the existence of the company; (2) accuracy of address and physical location; (3) the applying individual is a valid employee of the applicant company with authority to bind the Participant; and (4) the applicant company is a member in good standing of a recognized industry trade association or is duly licensed or registered with the applicable regulatory body.

(c) The Participant agrees to promptly, but in no event more than ten business days after the occurrence, notify Sheltered Harbor if Participant becomes aware that its eligibility status has changed.

(d) Participation Dues levels are specified under Section 2.3 of the Rules

Sheltered Harbor Participation Agreement

(e) The Participant agrees to use reasonable efforts to implement the applicable Sheltered Harbor standards for securely storing and restoring critical financial account information within its organization using Sheltered Harbor-specified processes as specified in the Sheltered Harbor Specifications document made available to Participants ("Sheltered Harbor Specifications").

(f) The Participant agrees that it will not be eligible to use the Sheltered Harbor designations to describe its data security protocols until it successfully completes the required certification process as described in the Sheltered Harbor Specifications. Participant's eligibility to use the Sheltered Harbor designations will terminate upon termination of this Agreement. Section 4.3 of the Rules provides more detail on Sheltered Harbor designations and the conditions governing their use.

3. Term and Termination.

This Agreement is effective from the date of acceptance of this Agreement by Sheltered Harbor and shall automatically renew annually unless terminated by either party. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, Participant may terminate this Agreement upon written notice without cause at any time. In addition, this Agreement shall terminate (i) if Participant is no longer a Participant in good standing with Sheltered Harbor; (ii) if Participant no longer satisfies all of the criteria for admission as a Participant of Sheltered Harbor; (iii) if the operation of Sheltered Harbor is terminated; or (iv) if the Sheltered Harbor Board of Directors, in consultation with FS-ISAC, for cause, decides to terminate the Participant, the Participant Program, or existing Participation Agreements. Additional conditions related to Agreement termination are outlined in Section 2.1(c) of the Rules. Neither Sheltered Harbor, nor FS-ISAC nor any of their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives, advisors, contractors, subcontractors, information providers, or other Sheltered Harbor Participants shall be liable to Participant for any costs, expenses or damages whatsoever for terminating this Agreement and Participant shall not be entitled to any refunds for amounts paid to Sheltered Harbor under this Agreement except as noted in Section 2.1(c) of the Rules.

4. License to Use of Information.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, Sheltered Harbor hereby grants to Participant, its affiliates, and those agents of Participant which are (i) providing technology or security services that are directly related to the services and information provided by Sheltered Harbor and, (ii) responsible for acting upon the information provided by Sheltered Harbor to secure or maintain the Participant's technology infrastructure or facilities or mitigate a specific threat, a non-exclusive, non-assignable, non-transferable, royalty-free, revocable, worldwide, license to use the Sheltered Harbor information distributed to Participant under this Agreement solely for Participant's own use and not for further transfer or dissemination, except in a manner consistent with this Agreement and in accordance with the Rules. Sheltered Harbor information distributed to Participant includes but is not limited to the Sheltered Harbor Specifications.

(b) Sheltered Harbor information, regardless of medium, must only be given to relevant staff on a need-to-know basis and strictly in accordance with the Traffic Light Protocol ("TLP") and the Rules. Specifically, without Sheltered

Sheltered Harbor Participation Agreement

Harbor's written consent, Participant shall not disseminate or provide access to, in whole or in part, any TLP Red Sheltered Harbor information or the Sheltered Harbor Specifications to regulatory examiners; people responsible for formulating or informing public policy, marketing activities, business development; or any other people who do not have a direct need to have and use the information to protect the Participant's data, network, systems, people, or facilities.

(c) Participant's license to use Sheltered Harbor information will terminate upon termination of this Agreement.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, Participant hereby grants to Sheltered Harbor a non-exclusive, non-assignable, non-transferable, royalty-free, revocable, worldwide license to use information provided by Participant ("Participant Information"), solely for the purpose contemplated herein. All entities receiving Participant Information shall be bound to a confidentiality obligation at least as restrictive as the terms of this Agreement. Sheltered Harbor shall not identify Participant as the source of Participant Information except as provided in this Section 4. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed as granting, whether express or implied, any other license, right, title or interest in and to any Participant Information or other information provided or made available by Participant.

(e) Sheltered Harbor's license to use Participant Information will terminate upon termination of this Agreement.

(f) Each party understands and agrees that the other party, pursuant to subpoena or other appropriate legal order, has authority to provide any information from the receiving party to the requesting law enforcement or government authority, including, but only to the extent so ordered, information provided by the disclosing party. To the extent allowed by law, the receiving party will provide the disclosing party with advance notice of such disclosure to allow the disclosing party to seek an appropriate protective order or other relief to prohibit or limit such disclosure.

5. Representations and Warranties.

(a) Participant represents, warrants and covenants that it is duly formed and existing and in good standing under the laws of the State or Country of its incorporation, if a corporation, or formation otherwise.

(b) Sheltered Harbor represents warrants and covenants that it is a duly formed limited liability company and existing in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware.

(c) Participant acknowledges that implementation of the Sheltered Harbor Specifications by Participant is at the sole discretion of Participant.

(d) Participant acknowledges that it has (alone or with the assistance of such advisors, consultants or other agents it has engaged on its behalf) the expertise, technology, resources and ability to determine whether its systems are capable of implementing the Sheltered Harbor Specifications and if its systems can securely store and restore account information in accordance with the Sheltered Harbor Specifications. Notwithstanding any implementation by Participant of the Sheltered Harbor Specifications, Participant is solely responsible for providing for the security and safety of its account information.

Sheltered Harbor Participation Agreement

(e) With respect to the Sheltered Harbor Specifications or any future Sheltered Harbor standards or processes, including any representations or warranties, Sheltered Harbor does not guarantee or make any representations or warranties, express or implied, that the Sheltered Harbor Specifications, or any future Sheltered Harbor standards or processes, will (i) prevent any cyber-attacks, breaches of its systems, network security incidents or other similar disruptions (any of the foregoing, a “Breach”), or (ii) enable Participant to securely store or restore its account information in the event of any Breach. Sheltered Harbor, its affiliates and each of their respective directors, officers, employees, consultants, agents and representatives are not responsible for any Breach or the failure of Participant’s system to securely store or restore account information, including without limitation potential liability to Participant’s customers or any reputational damage. Without limiting the foregoing, the Sheltered Harbor Specifications or any future Sheltered Harbor standards or processes are in each case provided on an “as is” basis and Sheltered Harbor makes no representations or warranties, whether express, implied or statutory, with respect thereto, including implied warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose, which are specifically disclaimed.

6. Indemnification.

(a) Each Party shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the other Party and its respective directors, officers, managers, employees and agents, from and against any claims, losses, damages or expenses (including reasonable attorney fees, expenses and disbursements) by third parties pertaining to the actual or alleged infringement of any intellectual property right, including, without limitation, patents, copyrights, trademarks, service marks, or misappropriation of trade secrets or any similar property rights, arising from the indemnified Party accessing, using or distributing information provided by the indemnifying Party, while in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

(b) In the event of any claim or suit relating to any matter for which one party has agreed to provide indemnification under this Agreement, the indemnified party shall promptly provide notice of such claim or suit to the indemnifying party. The indemnifying party shall then have the sole right to control the conduct of the claim or suit and the indemnified party shall reasonably cooperate in the conduct of such claim or suit at the expense of the indemnifying party; provided, however, that the indemnified party may, in its own discretion and at its own expense, participate in the defense of any claim including counsel of its own choosing but such participation shall not relieve the indemnifying party of its obligations to defend such claim. In no event, however, may there be a settlement of any such claim or suit without the written consent of the indemnified party. The indemnified party has the sole and exclusive authority to enter into any settlement that would impose an injunction or any other equitable relief on the indemnified party.

7. Limitation of Liability.

IN NO EVENT SHALL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER PARTY OR TO ANY THIRD PARTY FOR INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION LOST PROFITS) ARISING FROM ACTS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT EVEN IF SUCH PARTY OR PARTICIPANT HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. Information generally known in the industry or otherwise publicly available at the time of disclosure, information that a party can demonstrate was lawfully in its possession prior to the date of disclosure, information which has been disclosed by third parties which have a right to do so, or information developed independently by the receiving party without reference to or use of the Confidential Information, shall not be deemed Confidential Information for purposes of this Section 8. Each party's obligations pursuant to this Section 8 shall survive the termination of this Agreement for any reason.

Each party shall notify the disclosing party promptly if there is any actual or reasonably suspected (a) unauthorized or unlawful access to or disclosure of any Confidential Information, or (b) unauthorized access to any facility, computer network or system containing any Confidential Information (collectively, "Security Incidents"). Where a Security Incident has occurred, the breached party shall promptly take all steps necessary to mitigate the damages caused by the Security Incident.
